

How to Subscribe via Brokerage Auto-Debit

Daniels Trading is pleased to offer the convenience of auto-debit to your brokerage account for the subscription fees associated with the products found below. Get setup in just THREE SIMPLE STEPS.

STEP 1: Open and fund a brokerage account at Daniels Trading. If you already have an active funded account, proceed to Step 2 below.

STEP 2: Print, complete and submit the Brokerage Account Auto-Debit Opt-In (click to open) per the instructions on the form. This is a required form of the 3rd party product provider to setup your monthly invoicing and should be submitted directly to them (not your broker).

STEP 3: Submit the required Fee Payment Authorization (click to open) form to your Daniels Trading broker. This form should not be submitted to the 3rd party provider as it is a brokerage document. To view a sample of how to properly complete the form with proper "Third Party" name, CLICK HERE.
